Вкалывают роботы, а счастлив ли арбитр? // Computers or arbitrators?

Аналитика
Арбитраж 3.0: искусственный интеллект
Тенденции в онлайн-арбитраже

Обзор
Признание решений в сфере технологий и ИС
Арбитраж и дистрибьюторы

English Section
- Interview with Peter Wolrich
- Machine Arbitrators
- Smart contracts
- SCC Platform
On 9 October 2019 the conference AUSTRIA – A TRUSTED PLACE OF ARBITRATION took place at the Residence of the Austrian Ambassador in Moscow. The building, originally known as the Nikolay Mindovsky House, designed and built in 1906 in the neo-classic style, served as a splendid location.

The conference was opened by the Austrian Ambassador Johannes Eigner and the Austrian Commercial Counsellor Rudolf Lukavsky.

The Vice President of the Austrian Supreme Court, Matthias Neumayr, held the keynote speech “The Supreme Court - Guardian of Arbitration in Austria”.

Matthias Neumayr, who chairs the 18th specialised panel of the Supreme Court in charge of arbitrations with seat in Austria, described the court’s practice in proceedings on the setting aside of awards and on the challenge of arbitrators.

Johannes Hock, President of the ArbAut, gave an overview over the “Austrian Arbitration Landscape” followed by a presentation of Alice Fremuth-Wolf, Secretary General of VIAC, on the proceedings under the Vienna Rules. Alice Fre-muth-Wolf also discussed VIAC’s newly obtained license as Permanent Arbitration Institution in Russia.

Gerold Zeiler, one of the two Austrian members of the ICC Court, explained proceedings with seat in Austria conducted under the ICC Rules.

Marko Szucsich, attorney and arbitrator in Vienna, gave a short insight into Austrian substantive law in the Russian language.

Finally, Anne-Karin Grill, attorney and arbitrator in Vienna, together with Alisa Mitiaeva, Head of the International Contracts Center at Severstal, presented to the audience their experience in a common case with VIAC hybrid-proceedings (Arb-Med-Arb).

The presentations were followed by a lively discussion during which the audience showed particular interest in the practice of the Austrian Supreme Court and VIAC’s newly obtained license.

Among the guests were in-house counsel from numerous Russian enterprises, lawyers of Russian and international law firms, representatives of the Ministry of Justice and of Russian arbitration institutions.

The conference concluded with drinks and an Austrian buffet. The last guests left shortly before midnight.